April 5 Named Cancer Sunday

Church bulletins of the various denominations are being replaced this Sunday by special ones prepared by the American Cancer Society and given to all churches requesting them by the Appomattox Unit, American Society. This is an annual project, says Cancer Crusade co-chairman, Mrs. Frank Chuchek, and is designed to give publicity and information as a "Kick-off for the month-long effort to give out cancer information and obtain funds.

"Tell Your Neighbors "is the the theme this year, as volunteers collecting funds distribute educational pamphlets in an accelerated effort by the American Cancer Society to put more lif saving education into American homes.

"Half of todays cancers are curable when they are detected early, diagonosed promptly and treated immediately, says Mrs. Chuchek. "During the Crusade we hope to blanket the area with essential information that will tell people what to look for an how to protect themselves and their families.

Each Crusader will be identified with the ACS armband. Mrs. Chuchek said, and will leave with every family a copy of an educational leaflet entitled, "Ite Answers to These Questions May Help Save Your Life."

County "Fair Share" goal this year is $1400, with a good percentage of funds remaining in Appomatox for local use.

Still Time To Help Red Cross

The American Red Cross has been called on again to aid disaster victims, this time in Alaska and California, result of Good Friday's tremendous earthquake and resulting tidal waves which caused havoc and great desturction.

Red Cross is supported entirely by voluntary gifts, says Appomattox county fund chairman, Reverend M. G. Simpson. In case you have not been contacted for a contribution to the drive please mail in a gift, he urges. Any amount will be appreciated. Approximately one - half of all funds received will be kept here for local needs — for local expenses in helping serviceman and their families — for expenses incurred in bringing in the Bloodmobile, and for emergency use in other cases of local needs.

Write RED CROSS, Box 85, Appomattox. Your gift will help put the county "over the top" in its drive for $2000.
